

2nd August,2025

Exhibition of Cultural Artifacts

Culturally relevant artifacts of the surrounding villages were collected by college students and put on display under an exhibition organised by Community Development and Engagement Cell of the college to sensitize the students to preserve historically and culturally relevant old household items which are almost extinct now.

