

9th Dec. / 10th Dec. 2025

Group Discussion held in B.A. III yr. Eng. (Maj/Min) Class
Topics: Modern Day Feminism and LGBTQ+

Group discussions were organized for the final yr. stud on 9th and 10th Dec. with the objective of encouraging critical thinking, awareness and respectful dialog on contemporary social issues.

On 9th, the topic of discussion was "Modern Day Feminism". Students actively participated and shared their understanding of feminism in the present context. The discussion highlighted issues such as gender equality, women's rights, workplace equity and intersectionality. They also talked about the various waves of feminism and the misconceptions surrounding feminism. The discussion ended with a consensus that modern-day feminism aims at equality and seeks to create a just and inclusive society.

On 10th, the session provided a platform for students to understand and discuss sexual orientation, gender identity and the challenges faced by the LGBTQ+ community. Emphasis was laid on empathy, inclusivity, and the need for safe spaces within educational institutions.

Overall the group discussions were highly informative and engaging. Students participated in the discussion and expressed their opinions confidently yet respectfully. The idea behind this activity was to enhance their communication and teamwork skills.
